II. Basis for Jurisdiction

Federal courts are courts of limited jurisdiction (limited power). Generally, only these types of cases can be heard in federal court: a dispute that involves a right in the United States Constitution or a federal law (as opposed to a state law or local ordinance); a dispute that involves the United States of America (or any of its agencies, officers or employees in their official capacities) as a party; and a dispute between citizens of different states with an amount in controversy that is more than $75,000.

What is the basis for federal court jurisdiction? (check all that apply)

☐ Constitutional or Federal Question ☒ USA Defendant ☐ Diversity of citizenship

Fill out the paragraphs in this section that apply to this case.

III. Statement of Claim

Pro Se General Complaint for a Civil Case (Rev. 10/16)

Write a short and plain statement of the claim. Briefly state the facts showing that the plaintiff is entitled to the damages or other relief sought. State how each defendant was involved and what each defendant did that caused the plaintiff harm or violated the plaintiff's rights, including the dates and places of that involvement or conduct. If more than one claim is asserted, number each claim and write a short and plain statement of each claim in a separate paragraph. Attach additional pages if needed.

The EFOC ~~is~~ ~~not~~ ~~issue~~ the following determination: Based upon investigation, the EFOC is unable to conclude that the information obtained is a violation on the other. This does not certify that the response is in compliance with the statute. No finding is made as to any other issue that might be construed as having been raised by change.

IV. Relief

State briefly and precisely what damages or other relief the plaintiff asks for the court to order. Include any basis for claiming that the wrongs alleged are continuing at the present time. Include the amounts of any actual damages claimed for the acts alleged and the basis for these amounts. Include any punitive (punishment) or exemplary (warning or deterrent) damages claimed, the amounts, and the reasons you claim you are entitled to actual or punitive money damages.
